The Children's Programming Committee of the Woodstock Fine Arts Association is excited to share the upcoming Fall event. Thirza DeFoe is a world-renowned Native American performer who entertains her audiences with hoop dancing and traditional storytelling from the Ojibwe and Oneida tribes of Wisconsin. Her knowledge of the Ojibwe language remains a tradition passed down from her grandmother. DeFoe has performed at the Grammy Awards, Native American Music Awards, opening ceremonies of the Olympic Games, and at schools and colleges across the U.S.

Thirza DeFoe will be at the Woodstock Opera House for ONE DAY ONLY. Registration materials are included in this email. Please share this information with staff members who plan field trips and special events.

If you have questions regarding the performances on Tuesday, October 21, please contact Joyce Lande at joycelande.woodstockfinearts.org or 847-754-1593.

Sincerely
